Suggested answer:

Dear Eric,

Learning that you are fond of martial arts, I am writing to sincerely invite you to join the martial arts club which is recruiting new members.

Marital arts, as the most important part of Chinese traditional culture, benefit us a lot. Not only can they help build up our bodies but also they can help us realize the value of determination and perseverance.

As for the activities, the club provides regular training courses which are of high level and conducted by a professional coach every Friday. Meanwhile, the members are to be divided into several groups to compete every two weeks.

If you are interested in what I have stated above, sign up on our school website before September 1st. I'm looking forward to your reply.

Yours,
Li Hua

书面表达评分标准:

(一)评分原则:

- 1、本题总分为 25 分，按 5 个档次给分。
- 2、评分时，先根据文章的内容和语言初步确定其所属档次，然后以该档次的要求来衡量，确定或调整档次，最后给分。
- 3、词数少于 80 和多于 120 的，从总分中减去 2 分。
- 4、评分时应注意的主要内容为：内容要点、应用词汇和语法结构的数量和准确性及上下文的连贯性。
- 5、拼写与标点符号是语言准确性的一个方面。评分时应视其对交际的影响程度予以考虑。英、美拼写及词汇用法均可接受。

(二)评分标准:

听力原文：

Text 1

W: I'm gonna throw out this ugly dress! I don't even remember why I bought it in the first place!

M: Well, it's such a beautiful material. Just get it to a tailor. A few changes will make it lovely.

Text 2

M: Father's sixtieth birthday is coming.

W: How should we celebrate it for him?

M: I plan to take the whole family for a big meal in a fancy restaurant. I'll also invite some relatives.

Text 3

W: Guess what happened to me last night.

M: What was it?

W: My phone rang when I was sound asleep. It was my friend Mary. Her car couldn't start when she passed my house. So I invited her to spend the night.

Text 4

W: Do you want to watch a movie tonight?

M: No, I want to spend the night at grandma's.

W: If you go, I'll go with you. I miss her so much.

M: Then let's go over to her place after Mom comes back.

Text 5

M: Before we begin today's lecture, I want to invite Dr. Kathleen White to talk about the plan for the afternoon.

W: Prof. Brookings, I just talked to Dr. White. She said she will be a little late today because she got stuck in traffic.

M: Oh, thank you, Dr. Mildens. In that case, I'll begin the lecture now, and Dr. White can tell us about the afternoon later on.

Text 6

M: Did you and your brother have a good time at the Media Camp?

W: Yes, it was great. He went for film-making and I chose poster design.

M: What made you decide to go there? Did your brother talk you into it(说服)?

W: Actually I persuaded him. I read about it in a magazine. I knew he'd be interested because he wants to work in the movie industry. I don't, but I was getting a bit fed up with (对.....厌倦) always spending the summer doing the same old things, so I applied as soon as I heard about it.

Text 7

M: Hey, Julia. You look unhappy. What's the matter?

W: Oh hi, James. I really want to be in my friend's band, but they say I can't sing.

M: Well, you've got a great new electric guitar, haven't you?

W: Yes, but they don't need another guitar player.

M: You see, I play in a band. Perhaps you could play with us. I'll ask the others.

W: Really? Who's in your band?

M: There's Pete and Danny. They're brothers. And then there's Joe—the pianist, you know, the tall American boy. We need a girl in the band. Let me ask them.

W: OK. We can practice in my garage.

Text 8

M: Next month all the people in our class have to spend a week going to work instead of going to school. I wondered if I could come to work with you.

W: But you don't want to be a lawyer. You've always said you want to do something different from your dad and me. Let's think of somewhere else you could go, like a hospital.

M: But I might want to be a lawyer.

W: What are all your friends going to do during this special week?

M: Most of them want to work with children in a primary school for a week. I really want to know what a lawyer is really like and what you really do.

W: Well, I'm not happy about it. But if it's what you really want and you promise not to be upset if you're bored, I'll do it.

M: OK, I promise.

Text 9

W: Chris, I would like to know, what kind of food you eat in Belgium.

M: We have our fish, our meat, our wines, our fruit...

W: I mean what is popular about Belgian food?

M: Well, it's a bit different in Belgium as I think it is here in New York. We really enjoy the tables. We don't go out for dinner that often but when we go out we stay at a table for three or four hours. It starts with appetizers, then it may be a soup, then it's the main dish, then it's still an ice-cream or something.

W: It takes so much time to have dinner in your country!

M: Yeah. We really enjoy eating and it goes slow. Last winter, a friend from Portugal went to Belgium with me. For Christmas dinner, we met at 5:30 and then we started with some drinks. I think we ate from 6 o'clock in the afternoon till 12 o'clock that night.

W: Wow! You must be fat there if you eat that much.

M: In fact we don't. We don't do it that often, but if we do, then of course the next day or the next few days you see people just don't eat much.

Text 10

W: And now for our Mystery Person of the week and your chance to win one of our amazing prizes. Last week's competition produced a huge response and the first five answers pulled out of the box received $100 worth of sports bags. And if you didn't win last week, here's another chance. And this week's prize is even bigger. We are giving away ten prizes of $250 worth of i-Watches to mark the first anniversary of the show, so get your pens ready to take down the address details. Just write the name of the person you think is our Mystery Person and send it to Mystery Draw, PO Box 5110, London. The address will be repeated at the end of the show for those of you who didn't get it. And now let me introduce our mystery person this week. He is a very well-known footballer who plays for a famous club, and has also played for his national team. He is very talented and is very popular, especially for the part he played in a famous footballing victory. He has no famous wife, and speaks French but not a Frenchman. If you think you know who he is, then send your answer on a postcard to Mystery Draw, PO Box 5110, London. That's PO Box 5110. We don't accept letters. And please don't forget to write your name and telephone number, too.
