B

Dancing and singing, the Yi people and visitors had fun around the fire during the Torch (火把) Festival in Liangshan, Sichuan province, on Aug 10th, 2023. Every year, the Yi people lights(点燃) torches to show they look up to the fire. The fire is very important to Yi people.

The early Yi people lived in high and cold places in the mountains. They used fire for light, to stay warm, and cook food. One Yi ethnic old saying goes, "Everything you eat must 'see' fire (所吃 的都要见火)。” In the old days, people lit (点燃) a small fire outside the door before they took animal meat into the home. They put the meat over the fire to make bad luck go away. People also use fire to light leaves (树叶) on the ground to make the land rich.

But the festival means a lot now. During the festival, both the Yi people and visitors come together around the fire. They show and spread (扩散) their happiness and thanks for a good life.

51. What do people in Liangshan do during the Yi Torch Festival?

- A. They go and visit other places in Sichuan.
- B. They light torches, sing and dance together.
- C. They stay in the mountains for some days.
- D. They light leaves to cook food for visitors.

52. What does the underlined words “look up to” mean?

- A. 向上看
- B. 查阅
- C. 崇拜
- D. 探望

53. Why did they put meat over the fire before taking it into their homes?

- A. To show their happiness.
- B. To keep the meat warm.
- C. To make animals stay away.
- D. To make bad luck go away.

54. Which one is TRUE according to the article?

- A. Yi people have the Torch Festival every year.
- B. The fire isn't important to Yi people.
- C. The early Yi people just used fire to cook food.
- D. The Torch Festival only means happiness.

55. What is the article mainly about?

- A. What visitors can do in Liangshan during the Yi Torch Festival.
- B. How the Yi people are learning to use fire.
- C. How important the fire is to the Yi people.
- D. Why there are many old sayings about fire in Sichuan.

C

A mother went home and she felt very tired. Her 8-year-old son ran up to her. He waited for her and wanted to tell her something about his younger brother.

“When I was painting a picture and Dad was talking on the phone, Tyler took his pencils and wrote on the wall in the living room! I told him you would be angry with him for doing it again, but I couldn't stop him.”

She asked, “He did it again? Where is your little brother now?”

“He is in his room.”

She walked to her younger son's room. She called his full name as she came in. Then, she found Tyler trying to hide (藏). He knew that the worst time was coming. For the next 10 minutes, the room was full of the sound of her shouting about the expensive wallpaper (墙纸).
